

Sing Sing Sing

by Antoine Bradford, Dwan Hill, Jasmine Mullen, Sarah Kroger Quaglia

---

Verse 1: (sopranos/altos in unison)

Grandma told me, "Life gets hard,
but one little melody, it brought me this far.
When you feel low, baby, just look up to God,
and let this be your song."

Chorus: (all, harmony)

Sing, sing, sing – Something happens when we sing.
Sing, sing, sing – Something happens when we sing.

Verse 2: (sopranos/altos, in unison)

Now that I'm older, I've lived some life;
Oh, I know a little bit how grandma got by.
She hummed that old melody from morning to night.
Now her song is mine.

Chorus: (all, harmony)

Sing, sing, sing – Something happens when we sing.
Sing, sing, sing – Something happens when we sing.

Bridge: (tenors/basses)

This is my story, this is my song: praising my Saviour all the day long.

(+ sopranos) This is my story, this is my song: praising my Saviour all the day long.

(sop/tenor/bass): [ This is my story, this is my song: ]

Altos: [ Amazing grace, how sweet, that saved a wretch like me. ]

(sop/tenor/bass): [ Praising my Saviour, all the day long. ]

Altos: [ Was blind, but now I see. Your love makes me sing. ]

(sop/tenor/bass): [ This is my story, this is my song: ]

Altos: [ Amazing grace, how sweet, that saved a wretch like me. ]

(sop/tenor/bass): [ Praising my Saviour, all the day long. This is ]

Altos: [ Was blind, but now I see. Your love makes me sing. ]

(All, harmony) my story, this is my song: praising my Saviour all the day long.

This is my story, this is my song: praising my Saviour all the day long.

Chorus: (all, harmony)

Sing, sing, sing – Something happens when we sing.
Sing, sing, sing – I love what happens when we sing.