

God Is Good

Jonathan McReynolds

Tenor and bass:

May your struggle keep you near the cross,
And may your troubles show that you need God,
And may your battles end the way they should,
And may your bad days prove that God is good,
And may your whole life prove that God is good.

Sopranos and altos (harmony):

See, may your struggle keep you near the cross,
And may your troubles show that you need God,
And may your battles end the way they should,
And may your bad days prove that God is good,
And may your whole life prove that God is good.

Piano solo

Everyone (harmony): words in brackets are sop/alto only.

May your bad days prove that God is good,
(And) may your whole life prove that God is good.
(See) May your bad days prove that God is good,
(And) May your whole life prove that God is good.
